

Telecommunications & Radiocommunications Regulator

The Government of Vanuatu, is recruiting for a Telecommunications Regulator.

The primary responsibilities of the Telecommunications Regulator include, but are not limited to the regulation of telecommunications & radiocommunications subject to the Telecommunications & Radiocommunications Regulation Act No 30, 2009. (see www.trr.vu)

Required Experience:

- Extensive regulatory or legal expertise in the telecommunications industry (ideally in developing countries) specifically on: licensing, dispute resolution, competition issues, interconnection, universal service, spectrum management, tariffs, consumer protection & standards
- 10 years minimum experience in telecommunications
- Relevant degree qualifications

Required Character Attributes:

- Proven ability to lead, coach and develop a team
- Demonstrated management & leadership, ethical judgment, advanced communications skills, highly motivated & initiative driven
- Ability to contribute culturally & professionally in an emerging sector and developing nation

Please email to jobs@trr.vu to request an application form & further details for this role.

Applications close on Mon Jun 18th, 2012 at noon Vanuatu Time (GMT +11).