ORDER NO. 6 OF 2014

Revocation Order: Computer and Network Services Limited (CNS Ltd) Telecommunications Licence

In exercising the powers conferred in me in accordance with clause 4.1 and 4.2 of Computer Network Services Limited (CNS) Telecommunications Licence dated 20 January 2010 ("the Licence") and upon due consideration on the process of revocation as set out in the Licence, I, the Regulator hereby revoke the said Licence.

Dated this 25th July 2014

Ronald Box
Telecommunications and Radiocommunications Regulator

Reasons for Revocation:

1. That the Licensee has failed to provide telecommunications services as authorized by the Licence;
2. That the Licensee has failed to commit to the legal obligations as provided in the Licence terms and conditions, inter alia, the payment of licence fees and the provision of telecommunications service to serve the purpose of the Licence.
3. That the Licensee was given 30 days revocation notice dated 19th May 2014 and has agreed on 16th July 2014 that the licence should be revoked.
4. That the Licensee was given fair opportunity and was consulted and agrees to this revocation.
5. That the Licensee does not have any telecommunications business for the past four (4) years that would warrant a telecommunications licence.
