Re: Acknowledgement Notice for support in the Consumer Rights Day 2017 (Consumer Rights in the Digital Age)

On behalf of the Telecommunications and Radiocommunication Regulator (TRR), the Utility Regulatory Authority (URA) and the Reserve Bank of Vanuatu (RBV), we take this opportunity to offer all our sponsors our sincerest appreciation and to say thank you for making the celebration of World Consumer Rights Day on Friday 17th March 2017 a resounding success.

To all the participants, the Officials of the Prime Minister Office, Officials from respective Government Ministries and Departments, Officials from respective embassies (the Australian High Commissioner) the Fiji Consumer Council, Representatives from the Police Commission, officials from the tourism office, students, youth groups, women Leaders, Vanwood mamas, and representatives of other regulatory institutions, the panel members for the panel discussions for the day, we thank you for participating and celebrating this day.

Thank you also to those who have in kindly contributed to the coordination of the celebrations in one way or the other.

Your participation gave noteworthy weight to the objective and the importance of the event and, importantly to our aim to achieving a substantial and appropriate awareness and framework for Consumer Protection in general but more importantly for this year's focus on the Digital age. Through your participation and strong input, the organizing committee has achieved the objective it sets for this event and once more we thank you for that.

Once again, thank you for your cooperation and continuous support to the TRR, and its organizational partners on making this event a great successful one.
